

PACIFIC GOLF WEEKLY

Pacific Golf Celebrates with Tiger Hunt at Brookside Country Club

Stockton ~ Supporters, alumni and friends of the program gathered once again for the annual Tiger Hunt, Monday, at Brookside Country Club. The Tiger Hunt, this year sponsored by Nakashima Golf, was again a huge success. The event received huge contributions from the more than 130 people that participated in the event and brought together the Stockton golf community for a perfect day on the links. The event received huge upgrades this year as it relocated to Brookside Country Club. Participants were greeted in the foyer by larger-than-life size gala posters of the entire 2007-08 Pacific Golf team. They then enjoyed a BBQ lunch on the patio and were off with a 12:30 shotgun start. Players wasted little time in gathering their teams, composed of four players and a “pro”, and completing their round in under five hours.

Upon completion of play guests were welcomed inside by iced Coronas, chips, salsa and guacamole on all the tables while head pro Piper Wagner and her golf staff tallied up the scores. The team of Tim Breland, Jimmy Brink, Jeff Foster, Christian Hackett and Brian Stephenson cruised through the one gross and two net ball format to take first place with a 184. Close behind was the Comcast group of Terry Dowling, Howard Parker, Erich Carter, Fred Walkover and Pacific player Bayhaan Lakdawala with a 186.

Former Pacific player Brandon Hemphill crushed the Nakashima Golf Long Drive contest on #1 and received a free club fitting and driver courtesy of Nakashima Golf. Brookside member Phil Herrera took the Long Drive on #2 while Glen Marzion and Tim Breland stuck their tee-shots to foot on #'s 3 and 8 to win the Closest to the Pin contests. Howard Parker and Max Freeman took the Closest to the Pin's on #12 and #14.

Over 40 players took home raffle items donated by Nakashima Golf and Taylormade while the event ended with an auction of great golf vacation getaways and resort packages. A huge thank you to everyone who helped make this event one of the best ever and a thank you to all of those who participated in the event and is helping make Pacific Golf a championship program.

“I want to thank everyone for a wonderful day of golf, we appreciate everyone’s support as this is vital to our programs’ success.”

- Brandon Goethals

